Lesson 1

Introduction to our new book, Supertato.

Activity - Draw a vegetable/fruit superhero and label it.

New book!

What do you think our story will be about?

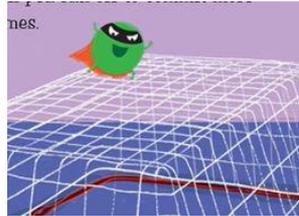

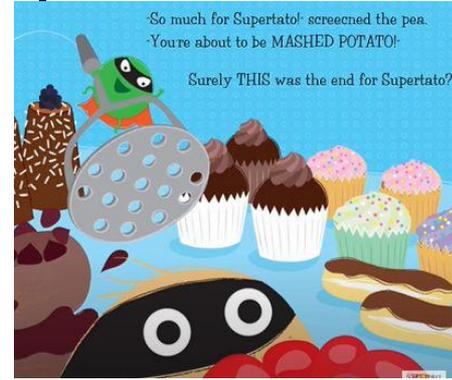

Who will the main character be?

What might happen?

Where could the adventure be set?

Can we put the story in the right order?

Activity- Can you make your very own vegetable or fruit superhero?

What will their superpower be?

What superhero outfit will they wear?

What kind of adventures do they get up to?

Here is Mrs Moon's superhero!

Avocado Boy has a hard bumpy shell and shiny green skin.

He has a bright red flowing cape and a cool red mask.

He has bright shiny red shoes to help him run fast.

He is a kind, brave and trustworthy superhero.

Avocado Boy always helps people in need and he always does the right thing.

Can you think of any more ways to describe Avocado Boy?

Let's draw our superhero first.

Will you choose a vegetable or a fruit?

Will your superhero have a costume?

Is your superhero a boy or a girl?

What colour is your superhero?

Now it's time to add some labels to our superhero.
Challenge: Can you add some adjectives?

Lesson 2

Speaking about everyday heroes who help us.
Activity - write a letter to a key worker

What is a superhero?

Some of you may have learnt about Supertato this week.

What makes someone a superhero?

What makes someone a hero?

Being brave

Helping others

Standing up for what's right

During lockdown there have been lots of people working hard to keep us all safe and healthy.

These people have been heros.

Can you think of any more?
Do you know any heros?

Today we want to say thank you to a key worker for being a hero.

This could be someone you know, maybe a family member or friend who is a keyworker. It could be someone who you see on your weekly shop. It could be your postman or your bin man.

You can post your letter if you know where your hero lives, or leave your letter on your doorstep for a delivery driver or postman, or on your bin for a bin man.

We want you to think of all the reasons that you are thankful for this hero and write them a letter.

What are the features of a letter?

So far this year we have written lots of letters. We have written letters to invite our parents to parents evening and we have also written to Mrs Docrwa.
