

Lesson 1

Using the conjunction and

Last week we learnt what makes a good sentence.

rehearse

Finger spaces

finger spaces

Full stops

full stops

capital letters

Can you fix these sentences?

i like apples

the weather gets colder inwinter burlington isthe best school ever

We can make our sentences even better by adding a conjunction.

A conjunction joins two ideas together to make a sentence.

It is a sunny day

and

It is hot.

Can you use the conjunction 'and' to rewrite and join these ideas together?

It is a cold day

it is raining.

and

I like apples

i like oranges.

I am kind

i am helpful.

Top tip- Remember, a sentence should only have one conjunction.

Good luck!

Lesson 2

Using adjectives

Which sentence do you think is more exciting?

I found a box.

I found a small, mysterious, magical box.

The green sentence has used adjectives.

Adjectives are describing words. We use adjectives to describe people, places or things. These words are called nouns.

Can you think of some more adjectives to describe these puppies?

white

cute

fluffy

Adjective challenge

We would like you to take part in the amazing adjective challenge.

You have 5 minutes to find 5 objects from around your house. You can choose anything you like!

When you have your 5 objects, we would like you to write as many adjectives for your objects as you can.

Share your work with us on Tapestry or Google Classroom.

Good luck!

Lesson 3

Space reading comprehension quiz.

Listen to Mrs Moon reading this space book.

See if you can answer the comprehension questions in this video. You can go back and watch the video again if you are not sure!

In order to do this lesson you will need to first complete the art lesson.

Lesson 4

Describe your alien using adjectives

Well done for creating your very own little alien.

Today we are going to think of some adjectives to describe our alien.

My alien is...

Cute

small funny

yellow

round

His legs are...

blue

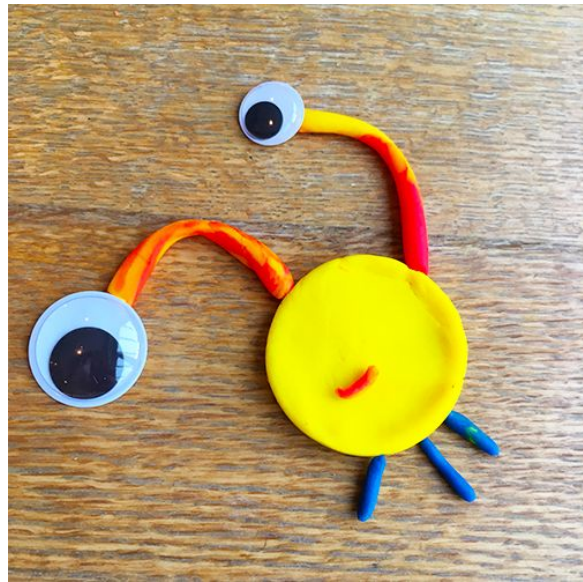

short

thin

His eyes are...

large

Can you think of your own adjectives to describe your alien?

What colour is it?

Is it big or small?

Is it fluffy or smooth?

What are its legs like?

What is its body like?

What are its eyes like?

What is its mouth like?

Keep your list of adjectives safe. We will use it in tomorrow's lesson!

Lesson 5

Creating a missing poster for our aliens

Oh no! My little alien has gone missing. I can't seem to find him anywhere.

I need to make a missing poster to stick around my house, so that if anyone finds him they know I am looking for him.

What would be helpful to include in my missing poster?

I will need to use adjectives so people know what he looks like!

My alien is...

Cute

small

funny

round

yellow

His legs are...

blue

short

thin

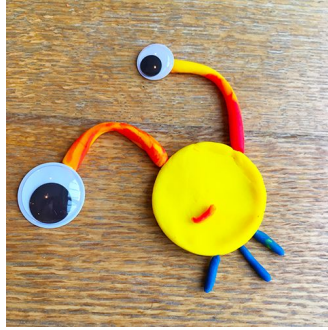

His eyes are...

large

I am going to use these adjectives to write sentences to describe my alien.

My alien is cute.

He is funny.

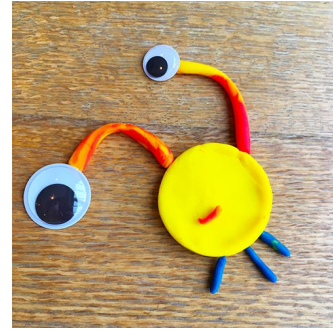

How can I join these two ideas together?

I can also use the conjunction and in my work.

My alien is cute and he is funny.

My alien has blue legs and round eyes.

My alien has a smooth body and he is small.

Can you spot the adjectives in my sentences?

Here is my finished missing poster.

Missing alien

My alien is lost and I would like your help to find him.
Please look out for a small yellow alien. He has round googly eyes and short blue legs. He is funny and he is cute.

Missing alien challenge.

We would like you to pretend that your alien is missing. Maybe you could even hide him yourself!

You need to make a missing poster for your alien and hang it up in your house.

See if anyone can use your poster to find the missing alien.

Good luck!
