

Burlington's Inspiration Station

Seasons

My favourite season is Spring. I like Spring because many animals give birth to baby animals who are very cute. After a long winter, plants will start to grow, flowers will start to bloom and colourful butterflies will come out. In Spring the weather is not too hot or cold to play outside. In Spring it is Easter, I can eat lots of chocolate easter eggs. Mumy likes Autumn because the leaves are colourful and the weather is cool.

The Magical Fairy

The Magical Fairy

Once upon a time there was a boy who really wished to have nice toys, but his parents had no money. His name was Laz and he was 7 years old. One evening he was sad and went for a walk in the green dark forest. While he walked, he saw a fairy flying. He ran home and got a jar to put the fairy in it. The fairy could make people invisible and turn wishes to come true. The fairy was very sad and cried all night. She kept asking Laz to let her go to her friends. He told the fairy that he really wanted lots of toys. Everyday he would ask for something new, but one day he realised that he is very hungry. The fairy said that I will give you food but I will take some of your toys away. Okay said Laz sadly. He gave up his toys for food. Laz's parents were surprised when they saw the amount of food all on the table. They were so happy. The fairy decided to give Laz his toys back because he was kind to others and let her go home.

Once upon a time:
I went on a holiday, then I found a cave. I found a pirate ship near it.
The ship was abandoned it was dirty and dusty. I went inside it. I found a lot of gold. The gold was shiny and it was glimmering in the sun.
I quickly ran out and simply told my mum that I found a huge pirate ship.
My mum was really shocked then she told the police about the pirate ship.

The Magic Tree

I went for a walk in the woods and I saw a Magic Tree. There were little elves living in the tree. The tree began to talk. The tree said "happy birthday, come inside."
I went inside the tree and it took off like a rocket. It took me to Pluto to meet aliens and we had a party.

Inspiration Station - Floating Bubbles

Once I stood on a bubble. It wasn't a normal bubble, it was a special, sparkling bubble, as big as a house that carried me high up to the Cotton Candy Land. Down below as I floated, I saw a cotton-candied kangaroo whom could talk a fluent, fluffy English. After introducing herself as Smiley, she guided me all around the area and kindly offered me lots of cotton candy which I gladly accepted and took home to share with my family. The world is more beautiful when we share the things we love with the people we love!

Speedian (Philan) used his power to run really fast and distract Fang. Icey (mummy) used her power to freeze Fang. Everyone in the streets cheered!

Once upon a time, a long time ago, ~~there~~ there lived a little girl, and this was no ordinary girl. She was a super hero! Now ~~her~~ her name was Lilah and all her family were super heroes too! Lilah's Mummy was called: Gale Force, ~~her~~ her Daddy was called: Daddy Thunder, ~~her~~ her little sister was called: Rainbow Rae and Lilah was called: Lilah Lightning. One morning Lilah was watching the news and it said there was a villain on the loose called Moaning Midnight. Lilah said, this is a job for the Super Hero family, ~~so~~ then set off the emergency alarm.

Chapter 2

Moaning Midnight ~~was~~ was mean ~~because~~ because everyone had always been mean to her. She didn't have any friends because all the other ~~children~~ children taunted her. She wanted to take over ~~the~~ the world and become Queen so that everyone had to bow down to her. She had black hair and wore black clothes and her super power was to block out the sun and make everyone gloomy like her.

Chapter 3

When the family got out ~~side~~, they heard Moaning Midnight say "I want to rule the world!" Lilah struck her with a lightning bolt, Gale Force made a whirlwind to suck ~~the~~ Moaning Midnight up, Rainbow Rae wrapped her up ~~in~~ in a rainbow ~~and~~ and Daddy Thunder made a giant ~~thunder~~ thunder clap.

Chapter 4

Then Lilah said "Why are you being so mean?" "Because everyone is mean to me and I haven't got any friends" said Moaning Midnight. "I'll be your friend" said Lilah. "Would you like to come home with me and have some ice-cream?" "Yes please!" said Moaning Midnight and smiled. Then Moaning Midnight became Magic Midnight and was never naughty again. She and Lilah became best ~~of~~ super ~~hero~~ friends.
