How to help at Home using Websites and Apps

 Let's get them flying!	Oxford Owl https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/at-school/assessment-at-primary-school/phonics-screening-check/ A brilliant website with free internet reading scheme books, games and resources.
	Teach Your Monster to Read: https://www.educationalappstore.com/app/teach-your-monster-to-read Usborne's multi-award winning learning application, teaches early letter recognition, blending and segmenting, through to reading sentences and mini-books, and all in the context of highly interactive games.
	Hairy Letters/ Phonics/ Words https://www.nessy.com/uk/apps/hairy-letters/ https://www.nessy.com/uk/apps/hairy-phonics-1/ https://www.nessy.com/uk/apps/hairy-words-1/ This award-winning phonics app series is in three sections, the first is an introduction to basic phonemes and blending using the SATPIN structure, the second is a three part long vowel series and the third is two part words programme which introduces the most frequent 200 words.
	Pippop: Another excellent phonics app based on the SATPIN phonics structure. http://www.pippoplearning.com/
	Mr. Thorne Does Phonics https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC7sW4j8p7k9D_qRRMUsGqyw A great set of videos to help teach all the sounds and tricky words. He has a very entertaining giraffe called Gerald!
	The BBC Watch Alphablocks on the CBeebies website or on Youtube.
