

Year 1 and Year 2 book recommendations

This girl in Emeralds recommends The Tale of Peter Rabbit by Beatrix Potter. The picture in this book is really lovely, and Peter Rabbit in the story is like a naughty friend. Even friends who don't like rabbits will like rabbits if they read this book.

This girl in Diamonds loves this book so much because it's really funny. There are absolutely no pictures and only words and letters. She keeps asking to read it again and again. Mum recommends this book to other parents!

This girl in Venus borrowed this book from the local library. She wants to recommend it to everyone because she thinks that it's a book about hope and it has a good ending.

This Y1 boy loves The Gruffalo by Julia Donaldson. It is a big favourite of lots of children! Do you like it too?

This boy in Y1 says, “this book is about George’s new dinosaur - robot toy. I like this book because it’s funny. The picture of George when he is upset and crying is very funny. I also like the song that the new toy sings - Dino Roar!”

This boy in Y2 loves this book because he finds it incredibly funny. In his own words it's 'hilarious'. The stories featured in the book range from Paddington at the circus to Paddington goes to hospital. Arthur's favourite little story is about Paddington going for gold where he won a medal. Paddington won his medal for nothing less than being the first bear at the fair!

This boy in Y2 says about Fantastic Mr Fox, “his tail got shot off and he digs a tunnel to escape. He stole food and drink from Bogis, Bunce and Bean!”

This boy in Y2 recommends the Beano Annual 2022. It has a lot of funny stories about kids and grown ups living in Beano Town. As a comic book it has very good pictures. Armand's favourite characters are Dennis and Gnasher. He says that he loves this book because it is interesting and fun. He laughs a lot when reading it.

This girl in Y2 says, “I like it because it's really funny. It's the fourth book in a series, starting with The 13 Storey Treehouse. It's about Terry and Andy who live in an amazing treehouse and have lots of adventures. They are very silly and Terry thinks Andy is the worst artist.”

Reception's book recommendations

This boy in Squirrels class loves Bramble Bear and the Missing Necklace by Geoffrey Alan.

This boy in Hedgehogs Class loves Julia Donaldson books and was very excited to read the latest one. It is about 3 baddies, a witch, a troll and a ghost, who try to scare a little girl. However, the little girl is not scared of them, and even tries to help the ghost. He enjoys the rhyming words and liked that the girl was kind and it was the baddies that got scared away in the end!

This girl in Foxes says, “I like the Queen, her crown, her dress, her bracelet, flowers, hat and reading about her life and family”

This is the favourite book of a boy in Squirrels Class. He likes it because the tiger eats and drinks everything in their home and finds it funny when he sits on the sink and drinks all the water from the taps! "I like to put myself, mummy and daddy into the story and pretend it's about us.

This girl in Squirrels Class likes how George keeps doing things he shouldn't do like eating a cake, digging in soil and chasing a cat. The characters are George (the dog) and Harris (George's friend). "The funniest bit is when Harris finds George doing things he shouldn't and says "Oh no George!"

This boy in Foxes Class loves the book Asterix in Britain. He likes the fact that the Romans and the pirates never win against Asterix and Obelix who are super strong with the magic potion. He likes it also because the Romans never manage to arrest and keep Asterix and Obelix in prison for long!

This book is the new favourite of this boy in Rabbit's class. It's a story about a magic cooking pot which is gifted to a girl, Rose by an old lady. Rose and her mum are very happy about having a pot until there is a porridge flood in the village!

Nursery's book recommendations

This boy in Green Nursery recommends Little Red Riding Hood. He reads it every day and remembers all the story. At the end of the story there is a picture of a wolf with a stone in his stomach. It's his favourite page!

This boy in Blue Nursery loves this book as it is full of lots of different dinosaurs and it is great fun pretending to be them as you read (or sing!) along. “My favourite thing was flapping my arms like I was a pterodactyl!”

This girl in Blue Nursery recommends 'Can I Slurp my Spaghetti'. This book was a birthday gift from her friend. She loves the idea of this book, being with friends in her own house, playing and eating together with them. Also she enjoys slurping their spaghetti!

This girl in Yellow Nursery loves this book. It is about a young wolf who hasn't learnt how to howl and he is teased by his monster friends at school. It has lots of pictures of ghosts, vampires and zombies who love trick or treating!

This boy in Blue Nursery borrowed this book from school. He loved it so much he wanted it read again and again!

This girl in Blue Nursery recommends The Story Orchestra. This book shares a musical retelling of the opera The Magic Flute! It is a story of Prince Tamino and Princess Pamina and a bird catcher. It is set in two magical lands, has dragons, daring rescues, and lots of magical adventures.
