RE - Giving Thanks

The Creation Story

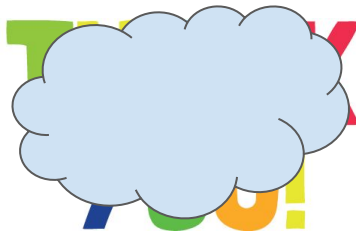

Last we were learning about the Christian Creation Story.

Can you remember who Christians believe created the world?

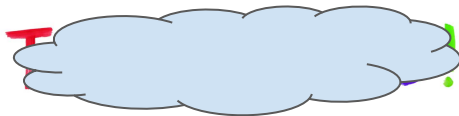

Being thankful

If someone gave you a present, what would you say? (click cloud to reveal)

Christian believe that God created the world.
What do you think they might say to God?

Christians say thank you through their prayers.
Have a go at reading this prayer of thanks.

Thank you for the food we eat.
Thank you for the world so sweet.
Thank you for the birds that sing.
Thank you God for everything.

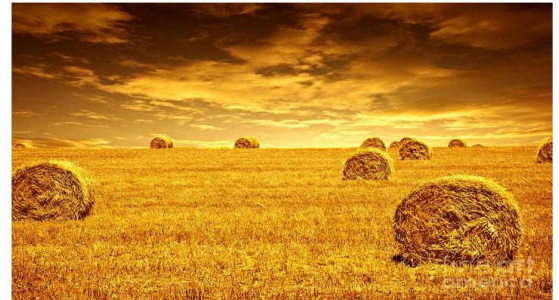

Giving thanks

All religions give thanks to God through prayers and special festivals and events.

Do you remember our harvest festival in the Autumn? We collected lots of food for the local food bank and sang special harvest songs.

Harvest is traditionally a time when Christians say thank you to God for all the food that has been grown.

Giving thanks at meal times

Christians give thanks to God for the food they eat.

They say a prayer before each meal. This is called saying grace.

Being grateful

Saying thank you for something means we are grateful for it.

Last year, during the first lockdown, lots of people showed they are grateful for doctors, nurses and other key workers who look after us by putting rainbows in their windows. Maybe you remember seeing the rainbows or joining in the 'Clap for Carers' each week?

What are you grateful for?

Maybe you are grateful for our wonderful world or all the amazing animals that live on our planet.

Perhaps you are grateful for your family and your home or your pets?

What are you grateful for?

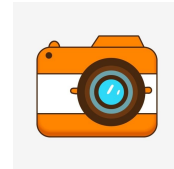

Thinking about what we are grateful for helps us feel happier and more relaxed!

Writing a 'gratitude list' or making a 'gratitude jar' are activities that help us remember all the things we can be thankful for.

Perhaps you would like to write a gratitude list or make a gratitude jar at home. You can find more ideas in your google classroom. If you do please share it with us - either on google classroom or Tapestry!

Thank You!!!

Thank you key workers!

Since the first coronavirus lockdown, our whole country has wanted to say thank you to the key workers.

Now that we are back in lockdown people will be clapping for carers, key workers and families who are home-schooling again. Perhaps you would like to make a poster for your window at home to say 'thank you'. If you do, please send us a picture either here or on Tapestry!
